

CANADIAN ASSOCIATION OF COGNITIVE AND BEHAVIOURAL THERAPIES /
ASSOCIATION CANADIENNE DES THÉRAPIES COGNITIVES ET COMPORTEMENTALES

CACBT-ACTCC ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The Role of CBT in Health and Health Promotion

MONTREAL, QUEBEC

MAY 4, 2019

STUDENT TRAVEL AWARDS

The Student Travel Awards have been designed to assist students in their travel costs for the annual meeting of the Canadian Association for Cognitive and Behavioural Therapies. There are two student travel awards valued at $500 each.

All full-time students (undergraduate, graduate, residents) from health-related disciplines (e.g., psychology, nursing, medicine, social work, occupational therapy) who have submitted a poster or symposium presentation to the CACBT meeting can apply for a student travel award.

The following eligibility criteria apply for the award:

- Enrolled in a full-time undergraduate or graduate program.
- First author on a poster or symposium presentation at the annual CACBT meeting.
- Current student member of CACBT.

To apply, please complete the CACBT Student Travel Award Application found at: <https://cacbt.ca/en/conferences/2019-montreal/>

Please save the application as “last name_first name_Student Travel Award) and email the completed application to Andrea Ashbaugh, Ph.D., at andrea.ashbaugh@uottawa.ca Please include “CACBT Student Travel Award Application” in the subject line.

All submissions are due by 5:00 p.m. EST Time on February 28 2019.

Successful award recipients will be notified by the end of March 2019.

If you have any questions, please contact Dr. Andrea Ashbaugh at: andrea.ashbaugh@uottawa.ca